Much praise is being bestowed upon Representative Harry L. Maynard for his great work in behalf of the appropriation; and the president of the exposition, the Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, and the chairman of its board of governors. Mr. C. Brocks Johnston, who have been untiring in their efforts in behalf of the appropriation, are also being congratuated. ated.

W. Simon Capps, once a sporting man of Norfolk, but retired through force of circumstances, and one who has been involved in several shooting affrays and several impromptu rough-house performances, is in the Norfolk city jail, charged with the folonious assault on F. H. Jackson, son of O. D. Jackson, capitalist and promoter and managing owner of the Atlantic Hotel, of this city.

The assault was committed late yesterday afternoon at the corner of Cumberland and Holt Streets, Capps was arraigned in the Police Court to-day. He was senf on to the Corporation Court. Ball was denied him.

Jackson was also in court, charged with feloniously assaulting Capps. The charge sgainst him was dismissed.

Jackson, according to eye-witnesses, met Capps on the corner of Cumberland and Holt Streets and asked Capps for $2$ which he said that Capps jowed him. Capps put his hand in his-pocket, Jackson thought, to get the money to pay him, but instead he brought out a big knife, and, opening it quickly, slashed at Jackson's throat. The knife reached its mark and made a gash on the lefe side of Jackson's throat. The knife reached its mark and made a gash on the lefe side of Jackson's throat. Not finding the navy the place for getting the ministerial education that he was looking for, and the life in it decidedly repugnant to his ideals, he deserted, went back to his home in South Carolina, and quietly began the pursuit of his education in a college.

On being discovered there, he was arrestd as a deserter, browth to the receiving ship Franklin at the Norfolk Navy Yard and confined aboard the vessel.

The case of the young man was called to the attention of President Roosevelt, and it is thought that the sympathies of the President were obtained for Fortner. He was quietly released from the Franklin and told that he might go.

Deserters from the navy are usually sent tried by court-martial and usually sent to prison.

As the launch started the officers and crew stood in line and cheered the Dames with hearty good-will. The ladies responded enthusiastically by way of a repeated good-bye. Midshipman Bartlett brought his company safely back to the Norfolk side, and there, after many congritulations to Mrs. Cox over the entire success of the day, the company separated.

General and Mrs. Cox were to return to North Carolina; Dr. and Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Royall and Mrs. Michaux were to remain over night in Norfolk. Others of the Richmond party reached the city, returning, at 7 o'clock.

Nothing could have begun, continued or ended more happily than the day which was an epoch in the history of the battleship Virginia and of the Society of Colonial Dames, who must always be associated with its history.

APPLICATION OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I am never without Cuticura Scap and Cuticura Ointment since I tried them last summer. About the latter part of July my whole body began to itch. I did not take much notice of it at first, but it began to get worse all the time, and then I began to get uneasy and tried all kinds of baths and other remedies that were recommended for time, and then I began to get uneasy and tried all kinds of baths and other remedies that were recommended for skin humors; but I became worse all the time. My hair began to fall out and my scalp itched all the time. Especially at night, just as soon as I would get in bed and get warm, my whole body would begin to itch and my finger nails would keep it irritated, and it was not long before I could not rest night or day. A friend asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I did, and the first application helped me wonderfully. For about four weeks I would take a hot bath every night and then apply the Cuticura Cointment to my whole body; and I kept getting better, and by the time I used four boxes of Cuticura I was entirely oured, and my hair stopped falling out, but I continue to use the Cuticura on my scalp. It keeps all dandruff out and scalp is always clean. I always use Cuticura Contment on my face after shaving, and have found nothing to equal it. I will never be without it." D.E.
